EDUCATION MANAGEMENT REVIEW

Sri Lanka

Education Management Review (EMR) is devoted to publishing articles on current issues in education in Sri Lanka and elsewhere. It is open for papers describing significant research and investigation contributions to management of education. Areas of particular interest include education policy and reforms, curriculum management, leadership and management in schools, quality management, financial management, career development, employment futures, management of education technology, education research, and comparative education management.

Academics, researchers, educationists, postgraduate students, education administrators, teachers and critiques are encouraged to submit papers to EMR. EMR accepts submissions in Sinhala, Tamil or English.

Authors, not the NIE or the EMR, are responsible for the accuracy and authenticity of information and the views expressed in the submissions. Authors are advised to avoid unwanted and direct criticisms of policies or lapses on the part of government including provincial governments or their officials.

Submission Guidelines

Please read our submission guidelines for complying before submitting a paper. Papers may not be reviewed if they do not follow our guidelines. Any paper submitted to the Education Management Review, Sri Lanka should NOT be under consideration for publication at another publication. All submitted papers must also represent original work, and should fully reference and describe all prior work on the same subject.

In an effort to prevent plagiarism, the EMR assumes permission to check the submissions electronically for plagiarism, using the CrossCheck system. All submissions must be accompanied by a Responsibility Statement as per the specimen given here.

All submissions must be in accordance with the following:

1. Papers must be organized under headings and subheadings, showing (a) an abstract (about 100 to 130 words), (b) an introduction, (c) objectives (d) historical account (e) theoretical background/policy context, and relevant literature reviews (f) study framework, arguments, hypotheses, etc.(g) analysis of information, comparisons, and critical reviews, (h) findings, conclusions/ recommendations (i) tables of data/graphs/formulae etc. in the main text presented clearly and professionally, and (j) references where required in APA Style (American Psychological Association).
2. All manuscripts (Sinhala/Tamil/English) should be submitted in Word format with 1.5 line spacing. We strongly recommend manuscripts not to exceed 20 pages (5000 words) including reference lists, figures, and tables. Excessively long submissions may be rejected.
3. Use 12-point Times New Roman (for English) and similar font for Sinhala and Tamil. Margins should be 1.5 on the left margin, and 1 inch on all other sides.
4. Include a title page with each author's name, two highest qualifications, current position held and contact information (mailing address, mobile No. and email.)
5. Include an abstract of 100-130 words.
6. Fully reference all prior work on the same subject and compare your paper to that work. In addition to referencing the work of other scholars, you should be certain to cite your own work when applicable/ Adopt the APA referencing guidelines.

7. Paper authors must state and sign the following Responsibility Statement and attach to the paper:

Responsibility Statement

I/we declare that the paper submitted under our signature has been the result of my/our own work and it has not been submitted to any other publication at present or published in its current form in other sources. I/we take the full responsibility for the accuracy and views expressed in the contents of the paper. (Signed by author(s) and dated)

8. Submit the paper on or before the deadline of September 10, 2019 to: Prof. G. Nanayakkara, Addl. Director-General, NIE, Meepe Junction, Padukka. Email: profnanayakkara@gmail.com
